

521 Fourth Avenue

St. Louis, Oct. 3.—The opening exercises of the International Congress of Tuberculosis began here to-day with the reading of the resolutions adopted by the various parts of the world present to discuss means for the prevention and cure of consumption.

In an address before the congress, Charles H. Hughes, of St. Louis, said that more than 400,000 people die annually of consumption, and that the use of the means of the diffusion of the disease," said Hughes, "is the universal cause of the trouble."

THE ONLY ONE

There is only One Genuine-Syrup of Figs,

The Genuine is Manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co.

The full name of the company, California Fig Syrup Co., is printed on the front of every package of the genuine.

The Genuine-Syrup of Figs- is for Sale, in Original Packages Only, by Reliable Druggists Everywhere

Knowing the above will enable one to avoid the fraudulent imitations made by piratical concerns and sometimes offered by unreliable dealers. The imitations are known to act injuriously and should therefore be declined.

Buy the genuine always if you wish to get its beneficial effects. It cleanses the system gently yet effectively, dispels colds and headaches when bilious or constipated, prevents fevers and acts best on the kidneys, liver, stomach and bowels, when a laxative remedy is needed by men, women or children. Many millions know of its beneficial effects from actual use and of their own personal knowledge. It is the laxative remedy of the well-informed.

Woggle Bug
During the month of October, one question being asked each Sunday. A complete set of answers means thirty-one, one coupon on which answers must be written being published each day in the month. There will be

64 CASH PRIZES
DIVIDED AS FOLLOWS:

For the greatest number of correct answers from one person $100
For next largest number of correct answers from one person 50
For third largest number of correct answers from one person 20
For fourth largest number of correct answers from one person 10
For ten next largest number of correct answers, $2.00 each 20
For fifty next largest number of correct answers, $1.00 each 50

64 Cash Gifts Amount to $250

If no one person gets all the answers correct, then the prizes go to those having the largest number of correct answers.

OBSERVE THESE RULES:

FIRST—Read these instructions carefully.
SECOND—Cut out the coupon printed on Page 2 neatly, following the black border lines closely.
THIRD—Read the question asked the Woggle Bug Sunday, October 2, then write plainly on the lines of the coupon, in as few words as possible, what you think the answer was. Then add your name, street and number, or other address, town or city, and State.
FOURTH—Do the same thing with the coupons that will be printed every day until Monday, October 31. You can make different answers, but they must be on the coupon printed in the paper each day, showing the numbers 1, 2, 3, 4, etc., and the number printed in the coupon for the question on the right coupon. The question asked Sunday, October 2, cannot be answered on a coupon bearing a date Sunday, October 9.
FIFTH—When you have filled out all the coupons cut from the Courier-Journal for one week, put them carefully away—don't mail to us yet. Do the same with succeeding weeks, until you have filled out coupons for the five questions that will be asked on the five Sundays of October. Then carefully send your coupons, placing those for each week together, according to the dates and the number printed in the coupon on the right-hand corner. Then place them ALL in one envelope and mail to "The Woggle Bug Editor, Sunday Courier-Journal, Louisville, Ky." Put nothing in the envelope except the coupons—no letters or notes of any kind. Send ALL your coupons in one envelope so that they will reach the Courier-Journal office not later than 10 o'clock Thursday morning, November 2. Coupons received later than that hour will positively not be counted, nor will coupons mailed each day or at the end of each week be counted—coupons for the entire month must all come in one envelope at the same time.
SIXTH—Remember that the largest number of correct answers to all questions will get the prizes. If two or more persons have the same number of correct answers to the five questions, the prizes will be divided. This rule will apply to all the prizes. For October it will be possible for one person to send thirty-one answers, that number of coupons being printed.
SEVENTH—Neatness in filling out coupons, care in arranging them according to numbers, and by dates, and a careful observance of all the rules printed herewith will count for against the contestant. For instance, if two persons send the same number of correct answers, and one follows all the rules laid down carefully, while the other does not, the prize will go to the first one. A committee will decide these points.
EIGHTH—Contestants must be regular subscribers to or readers of the Courier-Journal, and coupons must be cut from papers that have been bought and paid for either through carriers, agents, newsboys or by mail. Employees of the Courier-Journal will not be permitted to compete.
NINTH—Correct answers for the month of October will be published the first Sunday in November, and the prizes will be awarded immediately thereafter. Names of prize winners will be published. The publication by Mr. L. Frank Baum, the author, so that no one connected with the Courier-Journal can know the answers until the contest for the month is closed.

The Guessing Coupon

will be found at the top of the fourth and fifth columns, page 2, of this paper. Cut it out and fill it up carefully. It may help you to get a portion of $250.

Sculptor Bartholdi III.
Paris, Oct. 3.—Frederic Auguste Bartholdi, the sculptor of the Statue of Liberty in New York Bay, is critically ill. He has been suffering for months from tuberculosis, which a fortnight ago took a turn for the worse. Hopes of his recovery have practically been abandoned.

TAX RATE WHERE VOTERS WILL REGISTER THIS YEAR.

For New Albany Fixed
At 1.25.

DEMOCRATS MAKE REDUCTION

TRACTION COMPANY CHANGES ITS PLANS
OF CONSTRUCTING VIADUCT.

OF CONSTRUCTING VIADUCT.

An ordinance fixing the tax rate at $1.25 for the coming year was adopted by the New Albany Common Council at the meeting of that body last night. The levy is as follows: For general purposes ninety-five cents on each $100 of valuation for interest on the refunding bonds, ten cents on each $100; for sinking fund, fifteen cents on the $100; library fund, five cents. A poll tax of fifty cents was also fixed. This levy is fifteen cents on the $100 less than the rate which has prevailed for several years. On motion of Mr. McQuiddy, the hour of meeting was fixed at 7:30 o'clock instead of at 7 o'clock, from October 1, as heretofore.

Councilman Fougere called attention to reports that impure milk was being sold in the city, and the matter was referred to the secretary of the Board of Health. A petition of the Barber Asphalt Company, asking by its attorney, E. B. Stotenbuhl, that the City Engineer give stakes to lower the grade on East Main street, under the care of the Police Department, was referred to the City Attorney and Committee on Streets and Alleys. A communication from the United Gas and Electric Company in regard to the moving of certain poles was referred to the City Attorney and Committee on Lights.

About fifty citizens complained that the motion picture show on the street was run at an excessively high rate of speed, and the matter was referred to the Committee on Railroads. An ordinance providing for a fee of $100 a year for the privilege of peddling on the streets was adopted. An ordinance giving the Mayor authority to let a switch to the tannery of George Moser & Co. on East Eighth street, was referred to the Committee on Railroads, Streets and Alleys and the City Attorney, the usual guarantee being incorporated. A resolution was adopted fixing October 29 as the date on which to receive bids for the improvement of East Sixth street, between Spring and Elm. The Mayor and Committee on Fire Department were given authority to purchase a horse for the use of the department.

Councilman Harris, chairman of the Committee on Public Health, reported that complaints had been made concerning certain residences having connected house sewers to the open sewers on East Sixth street. A resolution was adopted ordering the City Engineer to move the sewer connection at once. The City Attorney was directed to prepare resolutions on the subject of the next meeting of the Council, prohibiting the tapping of any of the sewers for the purpose of conveying refuse to the city dump, and the City Engineer was directed to receive the consent of the Council.

CHANGE OF LOCATION
For Viaduct of the L. and S. I. Traction Company.
At the meeting of the Jeffersonville City Council to-night the Louisville and Southern Indiana Traction Company will present asking for a right of way from Market street to Court avenue, on the west side of Mulberry street, for an approach to the new bridge for the purpose of crossing the Ohio river. At a meeting some time ago a right of way was given along the sidewalk on the east side of Mulberry street, and it was the intention to build the approach there, but the objection was made by various reasons, mainly because city property was to be used.

According to the new arrangement the approach will be built on property owned at this time or to be acquired later by the East End Improvement Company of Louisville. The property is twenty houses on the line, and these will have to be torn down to make room for the approach, which will be various pieces of property are still owned by others than the traction company, one being an old schoolhouse that belongs to the city of Jeffersonville. All of this will have to be condemned and sold for by the traction company or the improvement company.

After reaching Court avenue the traction line will make a swing under the Big Four viaduct, instead of curving across a lot that stands on the east side of Mulberry street, and a plan will result in the expenditure of several thousand dollars more than was anticipated in the first place.

NEW ALBANY.
The suit for divorce instituted by Henriette Plois against Joseph Plois was dismissed in the local court yesterday on motion of the plaintiff.
George Moser was excused from service on the grand jury yesterday morning and Dimick White was drawn by the jury commissioners to fill the place.
County clerk Scott was notified yesterday that the pardon of Della Clay, of this city, from the Woman's Reformatory in Indianapolis, she was paroled several months ago.
Mayor Grose had four cases of intoxication before him yesterday. Two were fined and two were let off upon promise to take the pledge to refrain from drinking for a period of two years.
Dr. Otto Sprigler, formerly of this city, was married yesterday evening at the home of the bride's parents, Dr. and Mrs. Sprigler, in Bedford Park, Indiana. The bride, Miss B. B. of this city, will act as best woman.

First Mass was celebrated Sunday morning at St. Mary's Catholic church by the Rev. Joseph Schwegman. The celebration was escorted by the children of the church, the procession being headed by the clergy, under the direction of the sisters of St. Francis.
Patrolman McLaughlin arrested Joseph Noble yesterday on a charge of being assaulted by Cyril Gouls. He entered a plea of not guilty and was set for October 12. Afterward the matter was adjusted in some way, and Noble, who had been sent to jail, was released from custody.
Mischievous boys set fire to a bunch of waste last night, and the fire burst through the building under the corner of the house on East Fourth street, near the Monon river, and occupied by Sarah Roper, a colored woman. Neighbors, attracted by the fire, rushed to the fire with buckets before the arrival of the fire engine. The matter was at once reported to the police by Fire Chief Kraft and an investigation is being made.
The Rev. Edward T. Ponder, pastor of the Tabernacle Baptist church, left yesterday for Shelbyville, Ind., to attend the Indiana Baptist conference, which is in session at that city October 4-8. The convention is composed of 60,000, and there will be in attendance 20 ordained ministers with other appointed delegates. A cordial invitation has been extended by the Tabernacle church of this city to hold the convention next year in New Albany.
Stella Searles, by her next friend, Charles Searles, filed suit against the City of New Albany in the Circuit Court to recover $500 damages for personal injuries, in her complaint she alleges that on July 13, 1904, she fell over an obstruction on the pavement on West Main street, and was injured. She alleges that she was thrown into three places and was otherwise injured. The charge is alleged on the part of the city in permitting such obstruction of the sidewalk with no light or

The voting places in the various parts of the city have been selected. Registration will begin to-day. Only two days are given in which voters may register, and it is important that all who expect to participate in the election November 8 register to-day. CITY FEATURES.

MISS BARBOUR BRUCE, of the Arts and Crafts, has just received a beautiful lot of dress hats, statuary, the latest styles in engravings for invitations and visiting cards.

ARMORY

Secured For Williams
Speaking Thursday Night.

ACCOMMODATE BIG CROWD.

ALEX. P. HUMPHREY, SWAGAR
SHERLEY AND J. T. O'NEAL

WILL ALSO BE HEARD.

Final arrangements have been made for the John Sharp Williams speaking Thursday night, and after many efforts to find a suitable hall the local Democratic Committee has succeeded in securing the armory, on Seventh street, between Walnut and Chestnut streets. The building is not as large as the campaign managers would have liked, but by a careful arrangement of the chairs in the lower floor and in the galleries, it is believed 4,000 persons can be crowded into the hall. Many more will probably want to hear the distinguished Mississippian, but it is believed that the armory will hold as many as any other hall in the city except the Horse Show building and Phoenix Hill Park.

A special meeting of the Speakers' Committee was held yesterday morning, and it was determined to ask 500 prominent Democrats to act as vice presidents of the meeting. Joseph T. O'Neal will open the meeting and will introduce Alex. P. Humphrey, who will be the first speaker. Mr. Humphrey in turn will introduce Congressman Swagar Sherley, who will present Mr. Williams to the audience. Mr. Sherley is a warm personal friend of Mr. Williams, and it was at his invitation that the Democratic leader of the House consented to come to Louisville to make a speech.

The local Democrats are much elated at securing such a fine list of speakers to open the campaign in Louisville. The Democratic clubs of the city are preparing to make the occasion a notable one, and every club will meet at its clubrooms, and with banners and bands march in a body to the armory. The Jefferson County Democratic Club will have one of the largest delegations at the meeting, and the members will gather in Louisville early Thursday and march in a body to the meeting.

AFTER BRYAN AND COCKRAN.

Distinguished Democrats Invited To Speak In Kentucky.

The Democratic State Campaign Committee is endeavoring to secure William Jennings Bryan and Bourke Cockran to speak for Parker and Davis in Kentucky during the present month. The National Committee is not inclined to ask them to come to Kentucky, as it is felt that their presence is more needed elsewhere, but a final answer has not been given. The Kentucky committee believes that while the two great orators are in Indiana arrangements could be made for them to make a flying trip to Kentucky for at least a speech. Both Mr. Bryan and Mr. Cockran have been frequently heard in past campaigns in Kentucky, and the simple announcement of their coming would be sufficient to draw immense crowds.

MISS CHESSE RESCUES DROWNING GUIDES.

Thrilling Experience In Newfoundland and Wilds While On Cance Trip.

Miss Mary Grace Chess, who spent the past month in Newfoundland hunting with her father, W. E. Chess, had a thrilling experience during the last week of her trip.

She and her father, accompanied by their two guides, were making their way into a wilderness where no white woman had hitherto explored, and were making part of the trip by water. They were in a canoe, which was loaded with their provisions, weapons, etc., when the canoe struck a snag, and in trying to manage it, the two guides went overboard. By her quick action Miss Chess saved them from drowning. Most of the provisions were lost, however, and Miss Chess' favorite rifle, and for three days the party lived on slap-jack and molasses.

Mr. Chess has returned home, leaving his daughter in New York, where she is now visiting her aunt, Mrs. Francis D. Carley. She will return home next week.

Compilation of Insurance Law.

William W. Thum and Frederick P. Caldwell, of the Louisville bar, have just published a work entitled "Insurance Laws of Kentucky," which contains all statutes and decisions in any way relating to insurance matters in the State from 1788 down to the present time. It includes a comprehensive view of substantive insurance law because decisions in Kentucky embrace a very wide range of insurance questions.

Service Discontinued.

Effective Wednesday, October 5, the Louisville and Nashville railroad will discontinue all passenger service between Louisville and all points on the Harrods Creek and Prospect line.

RELATIVES

Of George Cross Contest His Will.

ESTATE IS WORTH $40,000.

THOS. COLEMAN WANTS THE RETURN OF $14,000.

NEW GRAND JURY ORGANIZED.

Nieces and nephews of George Cross, the umbrella merchant, who was found dead in bed several days ago, are preparing to make a contest of his will, which was tendered for probate in the County Court yesterday morning. An estate valued at about $40,000 is disposed of by the instrument, which is written in the handwriting of the testator, and dated August 13, 1903. The principal beneficiaries of Mr. Cross are his sister and former business associates, while several of the contestants received a comparatively small amount.

The contestants are Mrs. Florence Cardwell, Mrs. Emma Kuhlman, George E. Cross, William and Charles E. Price and Henry and Maggie Gatzola. J. T. O'Neal and Hutton Quinn, attorneys representing the contestants, objected to the probate of the will when it was tendered yesterday, and the case was set for argument October 6. The attorneys would not discuss the grounds on which they will attack the will, further than to admit that mental incapacity would not be the plea.

Mr. Cross, after allowing $250 for a tombstone, leaves his sister, Mrs. Mary Cross Russell, all his real estate and stocks and bonds, except property now used in his business at 413 Fourth avenue. Mrs. Russell is also bequeathed $5,000 to be paid out of the business and to be held free from the control of her husband. The testator explains that he makes these provisions for his sister on account of her kindness during the later years of his life. James S. Hilton, Mr. Cross' present business manager, is given $4,000 and all goods will of the business. The testator explains that Mr. Hilton is thus remembered because of his kindness and thoughtfulness and the latter's son, George E. Cross, are given $100 apiece, while Mrs. Florence Cardwell and Mrs. Emma Kuhlman are given the same amount each. William Price and Charles E. Price receive $500 each under the will.

Attorneys for the contestants are not yet certain whether E. J. Cross will join in the contest of his brother's will. The Fidelity Trust Company is named executor.

October Grand Jury Organized.

The October grand jury was organized and sworn in yesterday. Judge Joseph Pryor, who has been ill at his home with asthma for several days, took his seat on the bench. The regular charge was delivered to the grand jury, which included reference to selling liquor to minors, carrying concealed and deadly weapons, gambling, lottery, trusts and the child labor law.

The grand jury members are: Henry Dubourg, foreman; E. C. Baker, Thos. Ferguson, John Schmitt, Jr., John Wurtz, W. E. Hite, C. C. Hoke, W. N. Dale and Richard Edmister. The grand jury returned the following report for the day and adjourned until this morning at 10 o'clock:

Wilful Murder—Ed. Brown.
Homicide—John Hovellman.
Grand Larceny—David Bell.
Malicious Cutting—Florence Carr.
Gabe Chinn.

E. L. Crane, charged with converting another's property to his own use; Henry Taylor, charged with obtaining money by false promises; and Ann Durham, charged with malicious shooting, were dismissed.

Wants Money Returned.

Thomas F. Coleman yesterday sued the Fidelity Trust Company to recover $14,000 left in trust by him in the hands of the defendant upon an agreement that he should be paid $75 a month from the principal and interest until the fund was exhausted. He has now decided that this arrangement is not satisfactory, and wants the return of his money. The Fidelity Trust Company is Coleman, who is a participant in the Coleman estate, received the money as his portion from the sale of the property at Fourth avenue and Walnut street to the Seelbach Hotel Company.

Vaughn Pleaded Not Guilty.

Walter O. Vaughn, charged with killing R. Lee Suter at Dream Palace Fishing Camp, July 3, pleaded not guilty to the indictment for involuntary manslaughter brought against him when the case was called in the Criminal Court yesterday morning. The youthful defendant appeared, accompanied by his counsel, Charles Taylor, who waived the formal arraignment. The bond of $5,000 upon which Vaughn was released from custody at the conclusion of examination in the County Court, was returned to the clerk. The plumber, is the defendant's bondsman. November 23 was named as the date of trial.

Was Put Off Train.

George W. Schmitt yesterday recovered $150 damages from the Big Four Railway Company on account of the millage of being put off the train near North Vernon, Ind. He was unable to find the agent to have his ticket signed, but when he got home he found that the conductor would not accept it. This is the third trial of the case. Upon its first hearing Judge Toney gave peremptory instructions for the defense. Reversal was secured in the Court of Appeals. Last spring, before Judge Gordon, Mr. Schmitt was given a verdict for $150, but the railroad was granted a new trial.

Civil Courts Resume Business.

Business was resumed yesterday by the Common Pleas and Chancery divisions of the Jefferson Circuit Court, after a vacation since July 1. All three Common Pleas courts sit daily for jury trials with the exception of Saturday. The first division of the Chancery branch, Judge Shackelford Miller presiding, sits each Tuesday and Thursday. The second division, Judge Samuel B. Kirby, presiding, sits Monday and Wednesday of each week.

Restored To Civil Rights.

John Weaver, a postman, was adjudged sane in the Criminal Court and restored to his civil rights. His mental faculties became impaired some time ago as a result of an attack of nervous prostration. He was discharged from the asylum in May, 1903, and Postmaster T. H. Baker testified as to his sanity. Mr. Weaver was also on the stand a few moments.

Poolroom Cases Docketed.

The cases against the alleged poolroom operators and employees, involving charges of maintaining a common nuisance, engaging in a hazard and common gambling, were called in the Criminal Court yesterday and set for trial November 16. Counsel for the defendants entered a general demurrer to Capt. Meffert Deputy Sheriff.

Capt. William H. Meffert has been appointed a deputy sheriff by Sheriff E. T. Schmitt. He will serve in the place of Wallace Renfro, chief deputy, who has not been on duty for some months and is now in Minnesota recovering his health. Mr. Renfro will resume his duties as soon as he returns.

Court Paragraphs.

Sarah Fall sued Thompson Fall for divorce, alleging five years' separation. They were married February 23, 1893.

The Kentucky Title Company sued Louisa Miller for $400 on a mortgage on a piece of property on Crop street, east of Eighteenth.

Mary R. Vaughan sued T. P. Vaughan for $300 on a mortgage. They were married July 20, 1903, and the plaintiff asks the custody of their child.

George S. Watts, indicted for the murder of Tom Shepherd, pleaded not guilty in the Criminal Court, and his case was set for November 10. His bond of $2,000 was renewed.

Benjamin Earhart sued the National Council of Knights of Pythias and Ladies of Security to enforce payment of a $250 policy issued to his mother, Mary J. Earhart, September 25, 1900.

Carrie Heber sued Arthur Heber for divorce, charging abandonment. They were married September 19, 1901, and the plaintiff asks the custody of their child, restoration of her maiden name and $7 a week alimony.

Bertha Schaefer sued the city for $5,000 damages. While walking on Preston street, near Cubberly, she stumbled and fell over a hole in the pavement. She says she was a fashionable dressmaker, and is by her injury prevented from earning $25 a week.

Mary G. Franklin sued the Louisville Railway Company for $2,515 damages. While getting on a car at Third and Walnut streets she was thrown to the ground and painfully bruised. She complains, also, of falling in mud and water and being much humiliated.

Court of Appeals Decisions.

Fordville Banking Company vs. M. S. Thompson. The granted September 27, 1904. (Not to be reported.) Appeal from Third Circuit Court. Opinion by Chief Justice Burman.

First-Note—Sureties—Liability—Defense—Verdict—Peremptory Instructions. The defendants admit they signed the note used on as sureties, and it is not denied that the Thompson Coal Company got the money thereon by reason of their signatures, but they seek to escape liability. First, because C. C. Roberts, who signed the name of the "Thompson Coal Company" to the note, had no authority after the maturity of the note frequently to its credit in the bank. Third, that the note used on was embraced in a mortgage for $3,549.96 given to the bank March 28, 1898, by C. C. Roberts.

In our opinion the proof wholly fails to establish that the bank was misled, and the verdict of the jury in favor of the appellants is palpably and flagrantly against the evidence. A peremptory instruction to find for the plaintiff should have been given.

K. L. Green and Robert Crenshaw for appellants; R. A. Burnett for appellees.

New Farmers' and Traders' Bank vs. John M. Crow, et al., and German-American Security Company vs. John M. Crow, et al. Filed September 27, 1904. (Not to be reported.) Appeal from Union Circuit Court.

First-Note—Held by Bank For Collection—Form—Law—In this action by the bank against John M. Crow, et al., and the German-American Security Company, the bank seeks to recover the sum of $100,000, which it claims is due to it by the defendants.

The bank claims that the defendants, by their conduct, have rendered the bank a service, and that the bank is entitled to the sum of $100,000 as a result of the defendants' conduct.
